Esther: God's Hand Moves through the IMPOSSIBLE

Introduction: Agag was the king of the Amalekites during king Saul's reign. These were enemies of the Israelites. The animosity between the Jews and the Amalekites continued on.

The IMPOSSIBLE

- edict is in _____ language vs. 3:12
- _____ and _____ in the name of the king vs. 3:12
- _____ sent out by king's command vs.3:13-15

BUT GOD....

God's Hand moves in _____. Esther 4:8-14

God's Hand moves in _____. Esther 4:15-17

God's Hand moves in _____. Esther 5:1-3

Table Talk

1. How have you seen God work through the impossible in your life or the life of someone you know?
2. What gets in the way of you believing that God can do the impossible?
3. Put yourself in Esther's shoes – how might you have responded and how can her response be an inspiration to you?
4. Pray for each other.

Personal Reflection

If you are facing an impossible situation right now, commit to praying EVERYDAY for God to move. If you are already praying daily, don't stop! Ask God for endurance in your prayers. Ask God for faithful living in the unknown times. Plead with God for wisdom, faith, and mercy.

Continued Study: Read Eshter 6-7 in preparation for next week.

Song Suggestions: "Don't Stop Praying" by Matthew West and "These Days" by Jeremy Camp
